TUESDAY, JANUARY 4. 1737.

A. 476.

Glasgow, Dec. 12.

HIS Day died the Rev. Mr. James Stirling, Minister of the Gospel in the Barony of Glasgow; a Man whose whole Conduct from his Youth, shewed an Heart entirely possessed with Piety toward God, and Love toward all Mankind: His Life was almost wholly spent in Acts of Devotion and Humanity, so as to have little Room for even necessary worldly Business: Prayers, Praises and Thanksgiving to God in Publick, in Secret, and the Families of his Acquaintance, especially of such as were in any Distress, along with Consolatory Discourses employed almost all his Time, and obtained him the Love and Gratitude of all who knew him: He was Liberal even beyond his Fortune, for the Relief of the Poor, or for any good publick Design; eminent for Meekness and Humility, and of the most extensive Charity toward all Christians of different Persuasions: The State of all the Protestant Churches in the World, the Affairs Temporal and Spiritual of all his Acquaintance, especially of those under any Affliction, were ever the Matter of his Prayers, Intercessions or Duties to God, from a Soul burning with Love and Charity toward all, and in this Exercise, which had been the chief Delight of his whole Life, he spent his last Breath.

Edinburgh, Dec. 27. The Right Hon. the Earl of Borthglen, has been pleased to present to Mr. Gillett Hamilton, Son to the late Rev. Principal Hamilton, to be Minister at Cramond, vacant by the Transportation of the Rev. Mr. Robert Hamilton, one of the Ministers of this City. Last Friday about Midnight, a Chimney took fire in Kennedy's Close, which alarmed the whole City, but was happily extinguished without doing any Harm.

Last Saturday Archibald M'Aulay, Esq; Conserne of the Scots Privileges in Holland, arrived from thence, after a tedious and dangerous Voyage.

The Ball given in the Abbey Palace last Tuesday by the Right Honourable Company of Hanters, was very Magnificent; the Right Hon. the Earl Home, King; and Mrs. Margaret Lockheart, Queen. The Royal Apartments were fitted up on this Occasion, two Rooms for Dancing, and two for drinking of Tea, illuminated with many hundred Wax Candles: In the Grand Hall a Table was cover'd with 200 Dishes en ambigu, at which sat 150 Ladies a Time, and alternately succeeded by the like Numbers; the Hall illuminated with 400 Wax Candles. The Plan laid out by the Right Honourable Council of the Company, was exactly followed with the greatest Order and Decency, and conducted without the least Air of Disturbance. This Honourable Society consists of about 36 Persons of the highest Quality and Distinction, and their Council of Seven; among which last are the Treasurer, Secretary, &c.

The Character bestowed upon the late Lord Newhall by the Faculty of Advocates, as it must give Mankind a just idea of the Sentiments of that Learned Body which would so consummate a Judge, so no doubt it will be acceptable to our Readers: Take it as follows, viz.

Edinburgh, Dec. 17. The Dean acquainted the Faculty, that he had called them together at this Time, the Desire of several of their Brethren, who, he assumed, had somewhat to move to the Faculty, and that he would leave it to the Gentlemen, who desired the Meeting should be called, to lay before the Faculty what they proposed should be the object of their present Deliberation.

It was then moved by several of the Faculty, that an honourable and worthy Judge, Sir Walter

Black Jack, who had so remarkably distinguished himself during the whole Conduct of his Promotion to the Bench, by his great Abilities, suspected Integrity, and unblemished Character; being now dead, and to be interred this Day, the Faculty having resolved to attend his Funeral in their Formalities, if it might not be proper, that the Faculty should show an extraordinary Mark of Respect to the Memory of so valuable a Person, by attending his Funeral in a Body, with their Dean, and in their Gowns.

And they having reasoned some Time on this Proposal, examined into Precedents, and considered what might be the Consequences in future Times, unanimously came to the following Resolution, which they ordered to be recorded in their Books.

The Dean and Faculty of Advocates do, from Hearts touched with the deepest Concern, concur with the Honourable the Lords of Council and Session, and other Members of the College of Justice; and as they are fully persuaded, with the whole Body of this Part of the united Kingdom, in their Expressions of the strongest Regret, for the unspeakable Loss they all sustain by the Death of so valuable a Person as Sir Walter Pringle of Newhall, now deceased; they are sensible, that no Words they can make Use of, no outward Mark of Regard they can show, can equal, far less go beyond these Measures of Honour and Respect, which are due to so great a Character, and so distinguished Merit. They have not yet forgot how his Practice of those amiable Qualities, with which he discovered himself to be endowed, when one of their own Body, did Honour to their Profession; and his After-conduct confirmed the Nation in their just Opinion, that Knowledge, Diligence, Practice, and Integrity in the Discharge of the Function of a Lawyer, were not only useful Helps towards the promoting and supporting the right Administration of Justice, but necessary Preparations for the faithful Discharge of the higher Trusts to which he was afterwards promoted. They reflect, with Pleasure, on the Manner in which he was called to the Bench, his Abilities, Candour, and careful Discharge of the proper Duties of his former Employment, added to his moral Character, had celebrated his Name: He was marked out, by the universal Suffrage and Voice of the Subjects, as a Person whose Knowledge and Integrity would render their Lives and Properties secure in his Hands, and as such was nominated, by their gracious Sovereign, to execute so high a Trust. The Faculty do acknowledge, with Honour and Gratitude to his Memory, that his After-conduct gave no Disappointment to so great Expectations: His Integrity proved a shining Ornament to his Learning and Knowledge; and these, with his other distinguishing Qualities of Steadiness and unbiased Resolution, enabled him to apply his Principle of Integrity to useful Practice, and to do Justice, not by Accident, but because he knew it to be so; and if at any Time human Frailty and an over Jealousy of himself, misled him into smaller Mistakes, yet the virtuous Principles from which he acted, even in those Cases, and the extensive Habits of Justice he had acquired, over-shadowed these lesser Failings, and gave a becoming Lustre to the whole Course of his Judgments: Such Conduct, and such a Character, the Faculty are fully persuaded, have raised him lasting Monuments of Honour and Esteem in the Breasts of every one of this Faculty, and of all the Lovers of Virtue and Justice, and will render his Memory savoury to the latest future Times. The Faculty therefore considering, that there is no Precedent of their having attended at the Funeral of any of the Lords of Session in the Form now proposed, and foreseeing several Consequences that may hereafter follow, and draw them into Inconveniences, and particularly bring them under the dishonourable Necessity of paying extraordinary outward Compliments in future Times, where equal Merit may not call for the same inward Respect; resolve, and have resolved, not to attend the Funeral with any such transient Formalities, but to give this more lasting Testimony of their highest Esteem and Honour for so distinguished a Merit and Character.

Norwich, Dec. 31. On Thursday the 23d of this Instant December, these several Criminals confined in our Castle for Felony, viz. James Bladen alias Black Jack, John Painter, Thomas Batho, Henry Reynolds, William Wright, and Roger Muns, attempted to make their Escape, when the Governor went with the Turnkey to ward them up: They wrested the Key from the Governor, and swore they would murder him presently; but he kept his Hand on the Chain of the inner Door of the Prison, notwithstanding he and the Turnkey received several Bruises and Wounds by the Blows that were given them by the Villains; till at last one came to their Assistance, who took the Key from Black Jack, and dragged him in, and then they secured all the Rest, who are since severely iron'd, and closer confined than before: And one Katherine Woods is since committed to Prison, for bringing Knives and other Things to the said Prisoners, in order to saw off their Irons, &c.

Bristol, Dec. 31. The Undertaking for erecting an Infirmary, meets with universal Encouragement; the first Meeting of the Subscribers was held on Thursday last, when Persons of all Persuasions appear'd, and not only subscribed, but have promis'd to recommend this truly charitable Design (of relieving those who have the Misfortune of labouring under the most terrible of human Evils, Sickness and Pain) to their Friends and Acquaintance; and accordingly it is not doubted but all those who are capable of so generous Sentiments, as assisting their fellow Creatures in their greatest Extremities, will meet the other Gentlemen on Friday the 7th of January next: Among several other good Laws and Rules, which were agreed to, it was resolved,

That no Person be admitted into the Infirmary, who has not been Resident in the City of Bristol, or the out Parishes of St. James or St. Philip, for the Space of Six Months, before his or her Admission; except Mariners arriving in the Port, or the Case of Casualties, happening in the Liberties of the City, or the said out Parishes.

Canterbury, January 1. Saturday the 25th past was safe convey'd by the Keeper of his Majesty's Gaol at Maidstone, to Gravesend, and put on board the Caesar, to be transported to Virginia for the Term of 7 Years, John Johnson, Lawrence Macney, and Richard Morse. And

On the 27th was committed to the common Gaol at Maidstone, by Samuel Hollister, Esq; Mayor of the said Place, James Eagar, upon the Oath of Joseph Cordwell, for stealing a Bag of fine white Linnen Rags, the Goods of the said Joseph Cordwell, out of his Warehouse in the Parish of Boxley in Kent.

The GRAND SPECIFICK for Cleansing and Strengthening the Reins, &c.

A Medicine that hath gain'd so much

Reputation, for these many Years it has been publish'd, that not one of the many Pretenders to cure the like Cases, has at all hinder'd the just Reputation this first and only Specifick, for these Purposes, hath and does obtain, by its most noble Effects.

For it may be certainly depended on as absolutely effectual for carrying off, by Urine, safely and speedily, all the Relicks of secret Injuries, Remains of pernicious unskillfully prepared Mercurials, Gleetes or Weaknesses, thro' tedious or ill managed Cures of the Venereal Disease, or from Self-pollution, inornate Coition, &c.

Also any Weaknesses of the Vessels from Wrenches, Strains, Blows, or Falls, and all other Obstructions in the Urinary Passages, even Stranguries, Ulcers, &c. are perfectly cured by it, be they of ever so long standing; which Relicks and Ailments are, in Part, discovered by these following Symptoms, viz. Weakness and Pain in the Back, a Sharpness in the Urine, its strong Smell, Films or Hairs as it were floating about in it, and, in some, too frequent Occasion to make it.

This noble Specifick is also of singular and very extraordinary Use and Efficacy, where there is any Gravel, or even small Stones, Slime, or any other Matter that obstructs the Urine, bringing all away in a few Times taking, with Safety, and to the very great Satisfaction of the Patients, as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and particularly by a Gentleman, whose Case has so often been mentioned in this Advertisement, by a Certificate of his Cure; who, on taking but a little of this noble Specifick, voided above an Ounce of Gravel, and was cured of an insupportable Pain about his Loins, &c. by a short Continuance of it.

It also strengthens and recovers, after a particular Manner, all Relaxations of the Vessels, confirms the Parts, bringing all into Order, and thereby perfects the Cure to Admiration. It is a very pleasant Medicine, and will be found of uncommon Benefit to Mankind, beyond Expectation, which is the Reason of its being made publick, and to obviate the Ignorance of Pretenders in all the difficult Cases above-mentioned.

One Bottle, in most Cases, is sufficient for a perfect Cure, as you will see by the Directions given with it.

Sold at 7 s. 6 d. the Bottle, at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-shop, at the Griffin, the Corner of Bucklersbury, in the Poultry.

East India House, December 31, 1731.

The most Fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Dr
For ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS, That have been Sold so many Years, and with such Success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; but, since Mr. Parry's Decease, are now in London sold only by Mr. Read for 3 s. 6 d. a Vial, at the Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Convenience in White-Fryars. (N. B. You turn in just by the Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Convenience in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Convenience over the Door.) But in the County, by Mr.
Brown, Bookseller in Bristol.

They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Medicine for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing: And all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even when advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicine in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst ASTHMA's and CON-SUMPTIONS of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most effectual Fit of an ASTHMA, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; and admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of asthmatical Confirms, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, and thereby enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they rapidly and quickly Cure the most obstinate ASTHMA of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Cough-tions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions in the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Sore-ness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will certainly prevent one when feared. They are also exceeding potent and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitution and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned above.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine (and well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which most frequently trouble Night and Morning; also for the Cough and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cure thereof in a short time; and are so pleasant, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any aversion.

In short, these unparalleled Chymical DROPS are the infallible Remedy that ever was known (therefore they are the faint Efforts of any Counterfeiter or Imitator) for all Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, are therefore Publick for Common Good.
